PLAINTIFF JUSTIN WHITE'S FIRST SET OF INTERROGATORIES TO DEFENDANT PETER WHITE

Comes Now Justin White, Plaintiff in the above-styled action, and propounds the attached first continuing interrogatories to Defendant Peter White in his official capacity as Sheriff of Vance County ("Defendant or Defendant Employer") pursuant to FRCP Rule 33, to be answered separately and individually under oath. Answers to these Interrogatories shall be served upon the attorney for the Plaintiff at the offices of Sharika M. Robinson at 10230 Berkley Pl. Dr., Ste. 220 Charlotte, NC 28262 no later than thirty (30) days after electronic service of these Interrogatories.

INTRODUCTION AND DEFINITIONS

1. Each Interrogatory seeks information available to Defendant, his attorneys and agents, and all persons acting on his behalf. Accordingly, as used herein, the term "Defendant," "you," "your," refer without limitation to Defendant, Defendant's attorneys or investigators, insurers, agents and all other persons acting on Defendant's behalf.

2. Unless otherwise indicated, these Interrogatories refer to the time, place, and circumstances of the occurrences and events mentioned, referred to, or complained of in Plaintiff's Complaint and any amendments thereto (the "Complaint").

3. As used herein, "person" means an individual firm, partnership, corporation, proprietorship, association, governmental body, or any other organization or entity. When the term "identify" is used in conjunction with the term "person" or if the answer of any Interrogatory herein refers to a person (as defined herein), you are to state each such person's full name, home address, home telephone number, employer, profession or trade, business address, business telephone number, last four numbers of his/her social security number, place of birth, and date of birth.

4. Where the identity of a corporation, business, partnership, hospital, medical center, clinic, institution, or other entity is requested, for each such entity state its full legal name, its popular or "d/b/a" name(s) (if different), its address, and its telephone number.

6. When the term "identify" is used herein in conjunction with a document or other tangible thing, or if the answer to any Interrogatory refers to such a document or other tangible thing, you are to state with respect to each such item: (1) the date of the item, (2) the identity of the person who has custody or control of the item, and (3) the nature and substance of the item; all with sufficient particularity to enable it to be identified in a Request to Produce. Alternatively, you may produce the item, provided each document is appropriately marked so as to identify the Interrogatory to which the document is responsive. If any document or identification of any document or oral communication is withheld under a claim of privilege, provide information sufficient to determine the identity of the document or oral communication and, as well, state the basis for any asserted claim of privilege.

7. In answering these Interrogatories, you are required to furnish all information available to you, including but not limited to information in the possession of your attorneys, agents, associates, relatives, and friends. If you are unable to answer any Interrogatory fully or completely, so state in your answer to that Interrogatory that you purport to be unable to answer fully or completely, state the facts on which you rely in contending that you are unable to answer the Interrogatory fully or completely and, state the knowledge that you have concerning the unanswered portion of the Interrogatory.

8. If you maintain that any information or documentation responsive to these Interrogatories is privileged, or if you have withheld any such responsive information or documentation on any ground of confidentiality, with regard to all such information or documentation, set forth:

- a. The legal nature of the privilege or claim of confidentiality asserted;
- b. The factual basis for asserting the privilege or claim of confidentiality;
- c. The subject matter to which the privilege or claim of confidentiality relates;
- d. With respect to a document, identify the document by subject matter, date of creation, date of distribution, and type (e.g., letter, memorandum, tape, computer diskette, etc.), state the number of pages and attachments of the document, identify each person to whom the document (or copy thereof) was sent or shown, and state the reason each such person was sent or shown the document (or copy thereof); and
- e. With respect to information other than a document, identify the person or persons from whom such information was obtained and identify each person or persons to whom such information was communicated in any way.

9. An objection that an Interrogatory is overbroad or exceeds the scope of permissible discovery does not relieve you of the duty to respond to that portion which is not subject to the objection. If you make any such objection, you are requested to specifically state what limitations you claim should be made on the Interrogatory, and to respond to that portion of the discovery request which is not subject to such limitations.

10. Each Interrogatory should be deemed continuing so as to require prompt supplemental responses in accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. As such, you are required to supplement your answers to include information acquired after providing your answers to these Interrogatories if you obtain information upon the basis of which you know that an answer was incorrect or incomplete when made, or you know that an answer, though correct and complete when made, is no longer true and complete and the circumstances are such that a failure to amend the answer is in substance misleading or a knowing concealment.
